WARREN W. MORGAN.

APRIL 5, 1898.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. WEYMOUTH, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following REPORT.

[To accompany H. R. 6799.]

"The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 6799) increasing the pension of Warren W. Morgan, have considered the same and respectfully report as follows:

The claimant served as a private in Company G, Eighth United States Infantry, from September 5, 1838, to September 4, 1843, and while so serving participated in the Florida Indian war. He is now a pensioner at $8 per month under the Indian war service-pension act of July 27, 1892.

It is shown by the affidavits of Norman Kelley, James L. Adams, and Henry C. Hall, citizens of the town of Killingly, Conn., that the claimant is over 80 years old and without any means whatever, aside from his small pension.

The passage of the bill is respectfully recommended with the following amendments:

In line 8 strike out "twenty" and insert "twelve."

Add after the last word the words "the same to be in lieu of his present pension."
